Dear Judge Levy:

We represent Plaintiffs in cases against National Westminster Bank Plc (“NatWest”) and Credit Lyonnais, S.A. (“CL”), and write on behalf of all Plaintiffs’ counsel in the above-referenced actions.

We write to respectfully request an adjournment of the deadline for submission of the Joint Pre-Trial Order (“JPTO”) in the CL cases from December 15, 2017 to February 15, 2018 – which is the current deadline for submission of the JPTO in the NatWest cases. (Plaintiffs do not request an adjournment of the February 15, 2018 deadline for submission of the JPTO in the NatWest cases.) Counsel for CL has informed me that CL does not object to this request for an adjournment. There have been no previous requests for an adjournment of this deadline.

Currently before the Court are submissions from Plaintiffs and Defendants in the NatWest and CL actions regarding the order in which these actions should proceed to trial. (See Strauss ECF Nos. 446-447, 449-451.) Plaintiffs believe that adjournment of the current deadline for submission of the JPTO in the CL cases will enable the parties to prepare for trial in both sets of actions in an efficient and expeditious manner, while the parties await further guidance from the Court regarding which cases will proceed to trial first.

Honorable Robert M. Levy
United States Magistrate Judge

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Shawn P. Naunton
